FRESHMAN CLASS

Dear P.H.S.

Our first year in your great(?) halls turned out to be quite memorable. Our class officers were, President-Cheryl Larson, Vice-Steve Sauer, Treasurer-Priscilla Dykstra, and Secretary-Pat Proehl. We were represented by Jany Parry and Steve Leng on Student Council. Doing a fine job as our homecoming attendents were, Cheryl Larson and Craig Jeffers. Mr. Bruecken was our fortunate sponsor. Our class helped P.H.S.'s 74-75 year to be a memorable one with our amazing abilities in athletics, music and speech. So much for our Freshman year.

We remain,
Class of '78

Dear P.H.S.

This proved to be a very exciting and fun year. Our class officers were George Steehlinger-President, Lisa Ebel-Vice President, Julie Sauer-Secretary, and Cheryl Gaudian-Treasurer. Roger Dekok and Joy Schmitt represented our class on the student council. Mr. Schnack and Mrs. Ballard were our faithful sponsers.

As homecoming popped in on us, Julie Sauer and Jim Hunt were chosen our attendent and escort.

With the help of Mrs. Ballard, Joy Schmitt, Jane Wagner, Debbie Tewes, Laurie Ginger, and Valerie Hoppe all participated in speech contest. At small group music contest, Dave Steuck, Debbie Tewes, Joy Schmitt, and Jim Hunt represented us.

Eight of our classmates were chosen to be waitress and waiters at Prom. They were: Julie Sauer, Jean Hansen, Laurie Ginger, Jane Wagner, Steve Smith, Dave Steuck, Jim Hunt and Roger Dekok. This ended our sophomore year.

See ya next year!
Class of '77

Dear P.H.S.

Once again you've managed to keep us out of trouble by keeping us busy this year.

Jamey Stahl and Dann Stevens were always running to Student Council meetings with Dan Meyer presiding as Vice-president.

We decorated the stage for the Homecoming Royalty. Rosanne Stoll and Benny Ebel represented us.

The junior class play kept all of the actors and actresses of the junior calss busy during the month of October. It turned out to be a huge success.

We took control of the concession stand for the year to raise money for "The Event of the Year". Our theme was "Stairway to Heaven". The Prom banquet and dance was a great success--not to mention afterwards!

There is so much to say about the junior class, but we don't want to brag!

We will return next year to play the part of "Mighty Seniors".

HOMECOMING 1974

On Thursday night, we had the traditional girls powder puff game. The junior and freshman girls won over the senior and sophomore girls. Following the powder puff game was the cornation of King Rick Admire and Queen Cindy Grigg. They reigned throughout the homecoming activities and pep rally that followed.

On September 27 Primghar Bulldogs played a tough game against the Milford Pioneers Unfortunately, Milford was on top with 18 points to the Primghar's 12.

Hooterville Fire Department played for the dance held at the Primghar High School gym following the game. Everyone who attended the dance enjoyed themselves and it was a success.

The halls of PHS were brightened this year by the shining face of our foreign exchange student, Tetshuro Shibata. Besides enjoying the experiences of an American highschool, Tetshuro got a taste of farm life living with his American host family, the Art Meyers. Tet participated in basketball this season and earned a letter. The entire community certainly benefited from Tetshuro's stay here.

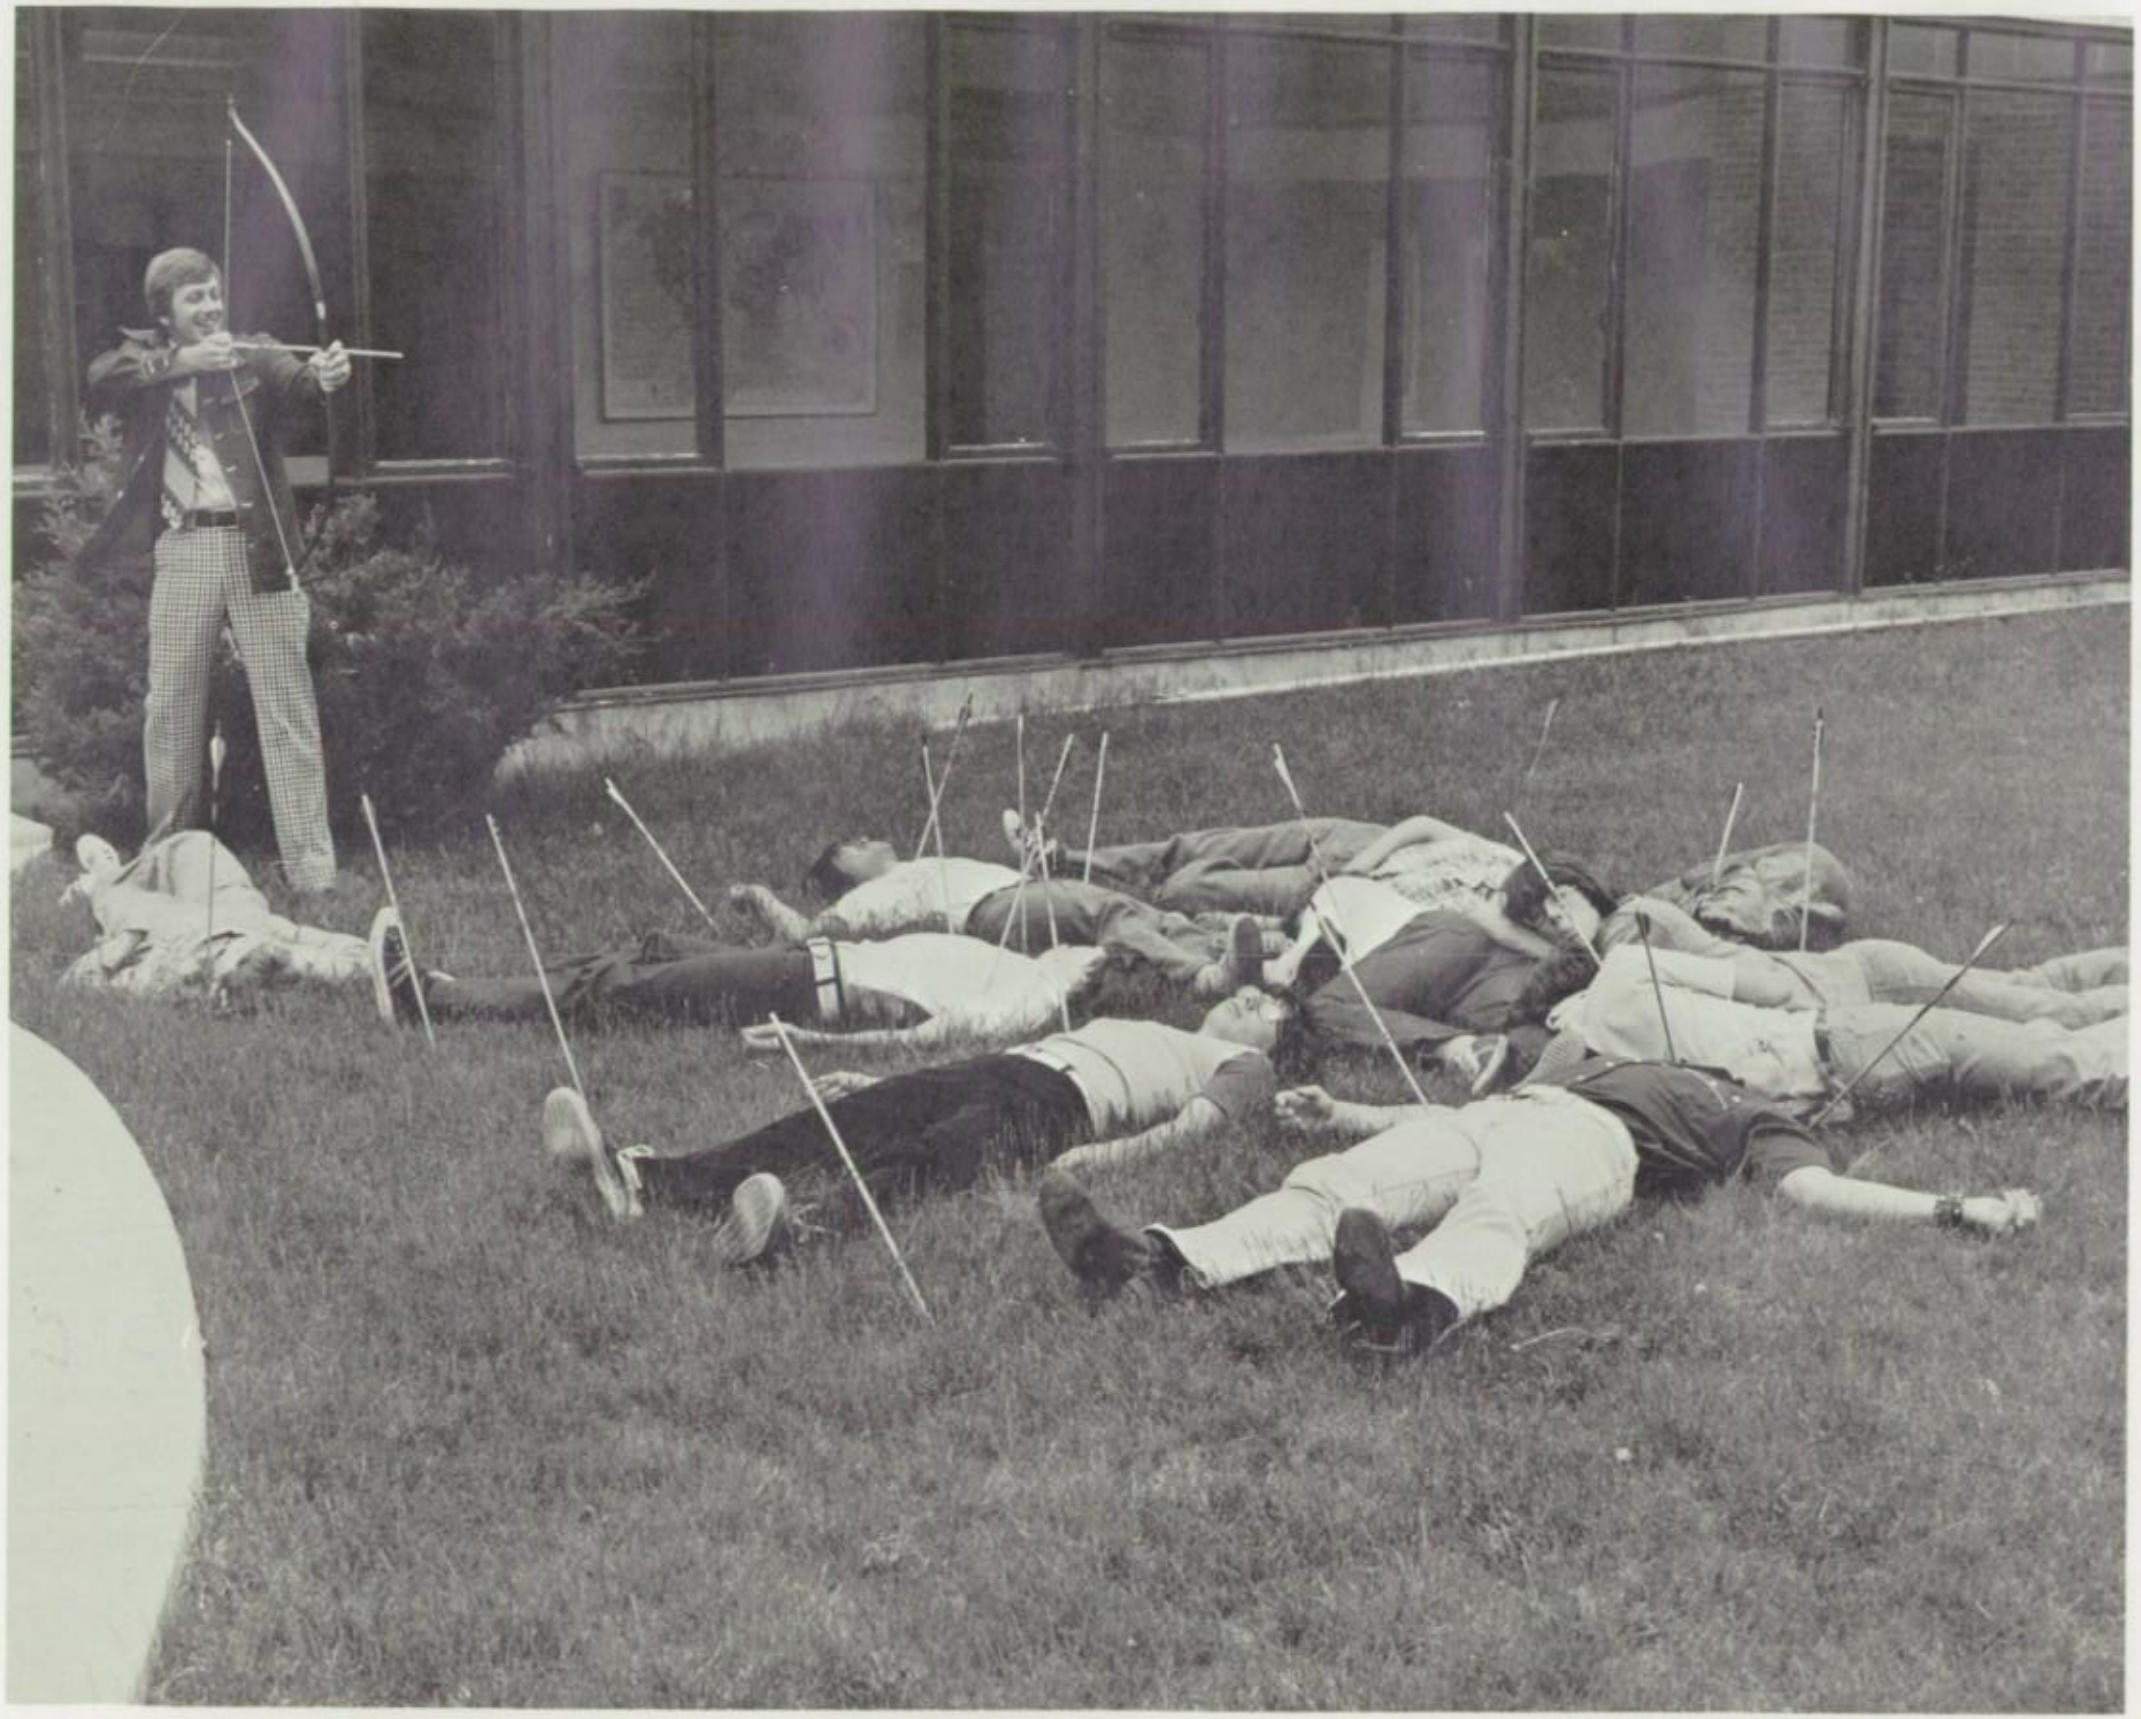
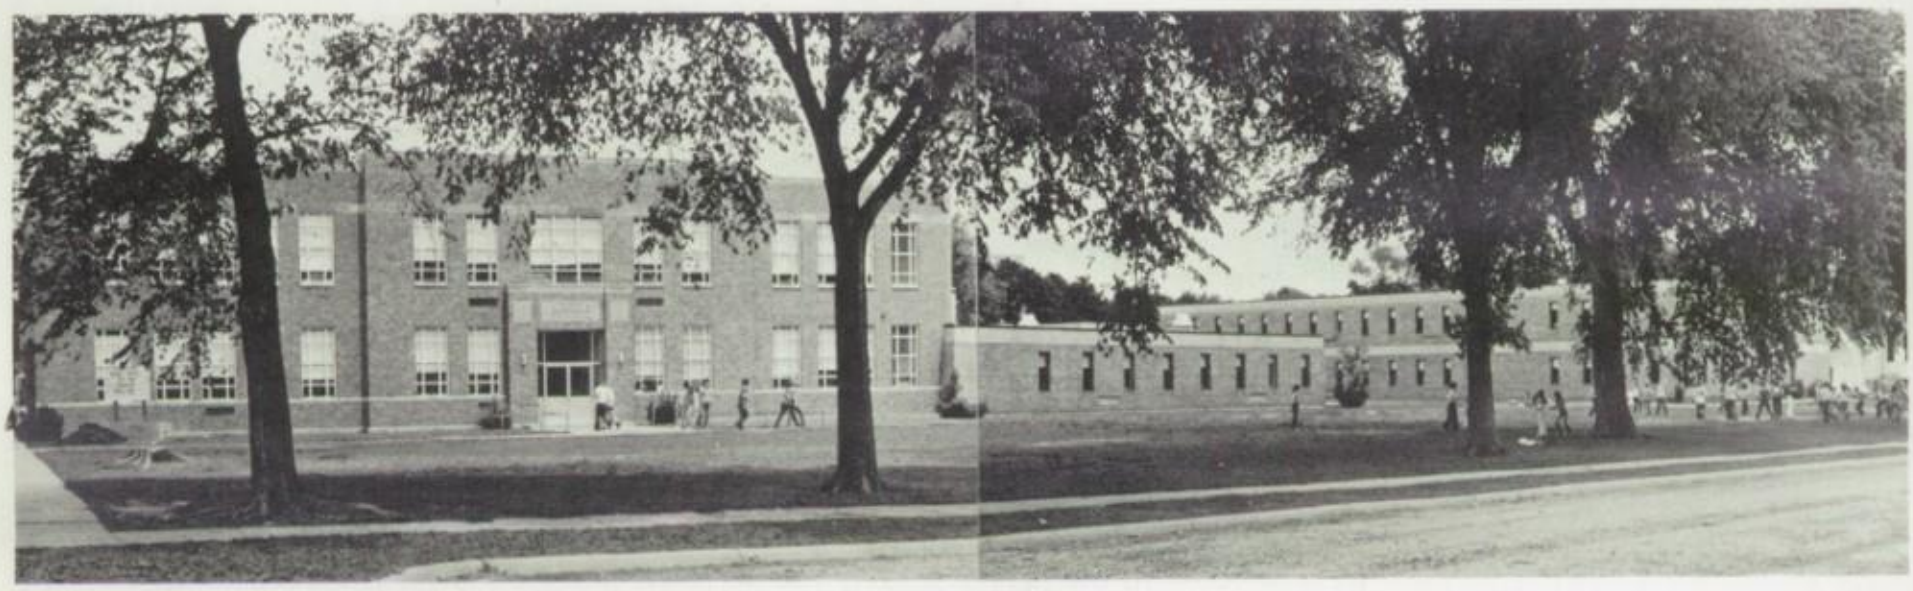
We have waited so long for this final day when we can leave these walls behind. But the day has come; and tears in our eyes. We can hear the echo of our laughter in its halls and see the faces of our friends reflected in our minds. But the day has come.....

Good-by Class of 1975

Our last week



PRIMGHAR COMMUNITY SCHOOL



Yesterday's a memory,
We've continued on our way.
But all of that is past now,
What's important is today.

For today we are becoming,
What tomorrow we will be.
Each one shapes a future
To fit his personality.

Tomorrow we'll remember;
Not the setbacks or the fears.
But the good times that we had with friends,
While wheeling through the years.
